GENE JINES AND E. P. YOUNG

At the meeting of Hope Kiwanis Club on Tuesday, E. P. Young, Chairman of the Key Club Committee, presented this year's Henry W. Seamans Memorial Scholastic Award to Gene Jines, the Senior Key Club Member who in the opinion of the Key Club Committee has made the most outstanding record in leadership and service to his Key Club, his school, and his community.

Yesterday's program at Hope Kiwanis Club was strictly political. George Frazier, Program Chairman, arranged to have Arthur Strech, Talbot Feild, Jr., and James Pruden, the three aspirants to the office of Representative of this district to appear before the local club and present their views on state government.

Just Name of Kennedy Is Voter Appeal

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The appeal to voters of the Kennedy name—and a drawing account on the millions behind it—have helped speed Sen. Robert F. Kennedy further along the road toward the Democratic presidential nomination.

The Kennedy organization sidestepped Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., in Nebraska's primary Tuesday, sending the first-out opponent of President Johnson's policies bumping to the brink of disaster.

McCarthy's casual acceptance of the short end of a 53-31 percentage of the Democratic vote did little to support his optimistic post-balling prediction that he will run even with Kennedy in the May 28 Oregon primary and may win the June 4 California test.

The truth of the matter, as most politicians see it, is that McCarthy is now a poor third in the Democratic race. It would take a brace of victories to boost him back into a top running position.

Kennedy said as much by naming Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey as his chief target in future campaigning and inviting McCarthy to join him in combatting Humphrey as the apostle of what Kennedy calls the Johnson administration's unsatisfactory policies.

Kennedy demonstrated in just about every category of Nebraska voter—city dwellers, farm voters, blue collar workers, Negroes and ethnic groups—the immense appeal he can project.

But his victory was not left to chance. It was wrapped up and delivered in an intensive and expensive campaign that followed the pattern he laid down in Indiana.

GROTON, Conn. (AP) — Retired Rear Adm. Husband E. Kimmel, 86, commander of the U.S. Pacific fleet when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, died Tuesday, apparently of a heart attack. Kimmel used much of his time since 1941 answering charges that he was to blame for the ease with which the Japanese dealt America its worst naval defeat. He said he had been made a scapegoat for the disaster by Washington officials.

French Riots Called Part of Big Plot

By LOUIS NEVIN

Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — While rebellious students carried on their sit-ins at most of France's 18 universities, Premier Georges Pompidou charged Tuesday night that the rebellion was part of a widespread international plot. But he offered the students more concessions.

Pompidou told the National Assembly the student uprising against French educational policies "involved individuals backed by important financial means with material adapted to street fighting, apparently belonging to an international organization."

"I do not think I am straying in thinking they are aiming at not only creating subversion in Western countries," he added, "but at causing trouble in Paris even at the moment when our capital has become the meeting place for peace in the Far East."

It was assumed that Peking was his target, since the Chinese are the only Communist force who have expressed opposition to the talks between the United States and North Vietnam that opened in Paris Monday.

The premier admitted there are basic causes for the student unrest, particularly a lack of jobs for liberal arts graduates. He said he would form a "committee for reflection," made up of representative professors, students, parents and others to "propose, if not solutions, at least experiments."

He also offered the possibility of greater autonomy for the individual universities and modification of the government bureaucracy's tight control.

gation posts. With 1,844 of the 2,133 precincts counted, this was the vote in the Democratic popularity poll, which is not binding on delegates.

Kennedy 70,045 or 53 per cent; McCarthy 41,671 or 31 per cent; Humphrey write-ins 11,765 or 9 per cent; Johnson 7,531 for 6 per cent.

Johnson's rejection of candidacy came too late for his name to be taken off the ballot.

In the Republican count, with 1,851 precincts counted, this was the situation:

Nixon 114,834 or 70 per cent; Reagan 35,766 or 22 per cent; write-in votes for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, 9,214 or 6 per cent.

Reagan's name was on the ballot, which automatically lists all potential nominees who do not file denials of candidacy. Rockefeller is a candidate for the nomination, but is not entering any primaries.

Nixon said Reagan had made a good showing in Nebraska, but added that was to be expected because there had been a campaign for the absent Californian.

Former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace had scattered write-in votes on the Democratic and Republican ballots—and all the votes in a miniature primary staged by his American Independent party. Wallace is waging a third party campaign for the presidency. He got one per cent of the Democratic vote, a smaller share on the Republican ballot.

Congressman Discusses Poor March

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bittel

The so-called "Poor People's March" is now in progress in Washington, building toward a climax. Anticipated about Memorial Day.

I know of no one in the Congress who is unsympathetic to the cause of people who are truly in need. I know of no one in the House of Representatives who is for conditions where there is a lack of food or shelter or income. The government is spending billions of dollars each year to alleviate these conditions.

Furthermore, I know no Member of Congress who does not support the Constitutional right of free, peaceable assembly... as fundamental to our way of life as is the right to a secret ballot in a public election. What we must avoid is a situation conducive to riots and civil disturbances of the kind which wracked Washington last month.

The Public Works Committee, of which I am a Member and in whose hearings I participated, has approved, and is prepared to submit for quick House action, a measure which would place limitations on the march. It would hold the demonstrations to more manageable proportions.

I would hope the marchers will confine their activities to reasonable petitioning. There is talk that as many as 100,000 may take part. As the people come to Washington, I hope that they find accommodations which do not endanger their own health and safety—as well as that of the community and other Washington visitors.

Their main overnight shelter, comprised of flimsy, temporary dwellings, is located in an area well away (I would have preferred a more remote site) from the Mall, Capital Grounds, and the famous monuments and memorials to our forefathers. The location of housing, somewhat removed from the principal travel areas, should serve to reduce interference with the general public which has every right to see and visit, unhindered, these symbols of our history—the monuments and memorials which should remain open and accessible to everyone.

If the marchers show signs of

IS THERE A POLTERGEIST IN THE HOUSE?

Dear Helen: We have lived in this old house a year, and I am convinced a poltergeist lives here, too.

At first I thought it was just the creaking and settling of timbers. Heaven knows, I don't—or didn't—believe in spirits. But when latched doors open, balls come bouncing down the stairs, and bottles break for no reason, right in front of my eyes, I must blame a poltergeist or figure I'm going crazy.

The other night while we were entertaining company, we heard a crash. Out in the hall, we found a light fixture, literally yanked from the wall. No one had been near it.

The strange thing is I'm not afraid of our noisy ghosts—and I have a feeling there are two. They play pranks, but they don't mean us any harm.

I've tried to find the history of this house, without much luck. My husband wants us to sell it, but I'm curious. If we have actually happened on to a phenomena, how could I walk away and leave it? Besides, our poltergeists are kind of exciting, and provide a conversation piece.

Could you, or some of your readers, assure my husband that poltergeists mean no harm? —GHOSTS' HOST

Dear G.H.: Sorry, I couldn't

I invite your comments.

However, here's my vote for your side. A couple of friendly ghosts should give you a fine, spirited life. —H.

Dear Helen: Is there such a thing as being accident-prone? How else do I explain having had five broken bones in less than two years, plus being involved in three car wrecks, plus having my house burglarized, then destroyed by fire?—UNLUCKY

Dear Unlucky: Unless you have a very unfriendly poltergeist, I'd guess you're the type who acts now, thinks later. The accident-prone usually invite trouble by taking chances, though I'll admit hard luck seems to dog some people for no apparent reason. —H.

Dear Helen: I have a friend who is getting married this summer. The man had an accident some time ago, and we understand he has permanent brain damage.

My friend doesn't know this. She thinks the occasional spells he has will gradually disappear. Shouldn't someone tell her?—A FRIEND

Letter About King Cause U of A Protest

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —about 25 students prevented publication of the University of Arkansas student newspaper Tuesday in protest over the editor's failure to print a letter praising the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The demonstrators blocked entrance to the university's printing plant for 8 1/2 hours. They left after talking with the Board of Publications and school officials.

A spokesman said the protesters were members of the Southern Student Organizing Committee and the Black Americans for Democracy. About half were white and half Negro.

The spokesman said the newspaper, The Traveler, published a letter critical of Dr. King April 10, then refused to print a rebuttal letter written by John Rowe, a student.

Kay Carson of Monticello, Ark., editor of the Traveler, said the newspaper had presented 39 column inches of letters sympathetic to King after his assassination.

The Board of Publications said that the editor had the right to decide which letters would be printed. The board suggested that Miss Carson discuss with the group reasons for non-publication of the Rowe letter.

Apparently the group did not plan to block publication of the year's final issue of the Traveler, which was due today.

The university has about 10,000 students.

"THE WICKED DREAMS OF PAULA SCHULTZ" shows tonight. It's a comedy with Elke Sommer and Bob Crane and the "Hogan's Heroes" from the TV series.

THURS.—FRI.—SAT. will be a screen filled with plenty of action. "NOBODY'S PERFECT" with Doug McClure and Nancy Kwan, is a comedy action story about a hi-jinks Navy ship. "ATTACK ON THE IRON COAST" is the story of a dangerous mission during World War II and is called "Operation Mad Dog." This one promises plenty of action.

Late Show Sat.—Sun.—Mon., Secret Agent MATT HELM strikes again—Dean Martin in "THE AMBUSHERS." Super-spy Dean Martin goes after some super-gals and the result is fun-adventure-spies-sex and suspense.

For more adventure entertainment see "FANTASTIC VOYAGE" and "MODESTY BLAISE" this week end at the DIXIE. "Fantastic Voyage" is an unusual science fiction thriller and "Modesty Blaise" is a real wild spy story.

Drysdale in 2-Hit Victory

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Nolan Ryan and Ron Reed are having the time of their young lives throwing smoke past National League batters.

Old pro Don Drysdale is throwing shutouts for survival. Ryan, the New York Mets' rookie sensation, and Reed, Atlanta's first-year flash, each zipped to his fourth victory of the season Tuesday night.

Drysdale, meanwhile, fired a two-hitter for his first triumph in a month as the Los Angeles Dodgers squeezed by the Chicago Cubs 1-0. The 13-year-old veteran had lost three straight well-pitched games after beating New York in his first start by a 1-0 count.

Ryan, who had been shut out for four hits and struck out 14 for a club record in hurling the Mets to a 3-2 decision over the Reds. Reed scattered five hits in subdividing Philadelphia 3-1 for his fourth victory without a loss.

Frank Johnson's first major league home run carried the San Francisco Giants past Houston 2-1 in the only other NL game. The Pittsburgh-St. Louis contest was rained out.

Oakland battered Minnesota 13-8, Detroit blanked Baltimore 4-0, Chicago nipped California 7-6, Cleveland downed New York 4-2 and Boston beat Washington 5-4 in 10 innings in the American League.

Drysdale, coming off successive 13-16 seasons of the feeble-hitting Dodgers, blanked the Mets on four hits April 13, then was beaten by Atlanta 2-1, by San Francisco 3-0 and by Philadelphia 3-2.

Tuesday night, he limited the Cubs to a fourth-inning single by Don Kessinger and a fifth-inning single by opposing pitcher Ferguson Jenkins. The 31-year-old right-hander finished with seven strikeouts, including a pair that got him out of serious jams.

Drysdale fanned Ernie Banks in the fourth, stranding Chicago runners on second and third. He left Cubs on first and third in the fifth by striking out Kessinger.

The Dodgers pushed over the game's only run in the sixth when Wes Parker singled, took third on Willie Davis' single and scored as Ron Fairly bounced into a force out.

Ryan, 21, struck out five of the last six Cincinnati batters to break the Mets' single game strikeout mark of 13 set by Dick Seima three years ago in a 10-inning game against Milwaukee.

The 14 strikeouts also gave Ryan, 4-2, a league-leading season total of 58. He survived bases-empty homers by Tony Perez and Lee May after Art Shamsky's two-run triple and a run-scoring single by Ron Swoboda sent the Mets ahead 3-0 in the third inning.

Reed, the 25-year-old former pro basketball prospect with the Detroit Pistons, struck out five and walked none in going the distance for the second time in four winning starts. Hank Aaron's two-run homer in the fifth provided the margin for the 6-foot-6 right-hander as the Braves rolled to the fifth victory in their last six games.

The homer was Aaron's ninth this year and the 490th of his career. He needs three more to tie Lou Gehrig for eighth place on the all-time list.

Johnson's bases-empty homer off Dave Giusti in the fifth inning gave the Giants and southpaw Mike McCormick a 2-0 lead and they held off the Astros behind Frank Linzy's tight relief pitching.

Linzy choked off an eight-inning Houston rally after Rusty Staub closed the gap with a run-scoring single, then retired the Astros in order in the ninth, protecting McCormick's third victory in six decisions.

Miami Is Picked for Super Bowl

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Writer
ATLANTA (AP)—Pro football owners, who apparently consider Miami the land of sunshine, sellouts and success, plan to stage their Super Bowl battle in the Florida city again next year.

"These men are businessmen, and they know you can't beat success," Miami Mayor Steve Clark said in explaining why Miami was awarded the 1969 showdown between champions of the American and National football leagues.

The 1968 Super Bowl was a 75,000-seat sellout in the Orange Bowl last January. Apparently that was enough to offset a guarantee of 80,000 fans made by New Orleans backers hoping to stage the next game in the Sugar Bowl.

New Orleans had been considered the early favorite, but in a voice vote Tuesday owners of 25 NFL and AFL teams gave unanimous approval to return the game to Miami. New Orleans abstained.

Miami will charge $35,000 again next year for rental of the Orange Bowl. Rental apparently did not have an effect on the owners, although New Orleans started out by asking for 12 percent of the gate, or about $90,000.

Frank Wall, general manager of the Atlanta Falcons, said the vote was based only on last year's Super Bowl success at Miami.

"You can't beat the weather, the crowd and the whole operation," Wall said. "Nothing else was involved."

With the site of the Super Bowl settled, NFL owners turned their attention to strategy to counter claims by players that they deserve a bigger financial cut.

Art Modell, owner of the Cleveland Browns and president of the NFL, said a committee would be empowered today to work out an agreement with the NFL Players Association.

The players are seeking a minimum salary of $15,000 a year, a $5 million annual payment to their pension fund and $500 each for participation in exhibition games.

The payment for exhibition games and the hike in the pension fund payment apparently has met with little sympathy from owners.

Climax of Derby May Come Today

By BOB COOPER
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The climax of the 1968 Kentucky Derby, 11 days late, appeared near at hand today. A stewards' hearing into the disqualification of Dancer's Image as the winner neared its close.

The three Churchill Downs stewards, racing's judge and jury, pondered more than 29 hours of testimony from a parade of eight witnesses including Lou Cavalaris, trainer of Dancer's Image.

Only one day remained before entries were due in Saturday's Preakness and the stewards made it known they wanted to finish the hearing so the colt's name might be dropped into the Pimlico entry box. Involved is an illegal administration of a pain-killer to Dancer's Image.

Kentucky racing rules, honored by all other states, prevent entry of Dancer's Image in any race until the matter here is closed.

Tuesday's session of the hearing extended into the early hours today, finally concluding at 2:06 a.m., more than 17 hours after it had begun. Another session today is scheduled for 9 a.m.

The eight witnesses who testified before the stewards were: Peter Fuller, owner of Dancer's Image; Cavalaris, the man whose reputation is at stake in the hearing; Robert Barnard, assistant trainer of Dancer's Image; and Russell Parchmens, the horse's groom.

Also, Dr. Alex Harthill, a veterinarian; Kenneth Smith, a chemist; Doug Davis, an owner-trainer; and Dr. Charles Jarboe, an associate professor of pharmacology at the University of Louisville school of medicine.

A report by Smith first brought to the attention of the stewards that phenylbutazone was found in Dancer's Image's urine. That report in turn led to the disqualification of the gray colt and the placing of runner-up Forward Pass in first place.

Smith testified for more than six hours in the closed and heavily guarded hearing room. Harthill was named by Cavalaris as the man who helped administer two tablets of phenylbutazone to Dancer's Image on April 28, six days before the race and more than twice the time believed needed for the medicine to have worn off.

Getting back to the strike zone, someone suggested the plate umpire be replaced with an electronic ball and strike calling device. How would he like that, "Fine," he said, "if I can control it."

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—The Seattle Pilots, who join the American League next season, signed Sal Maglie as pitching coach Tuesday.

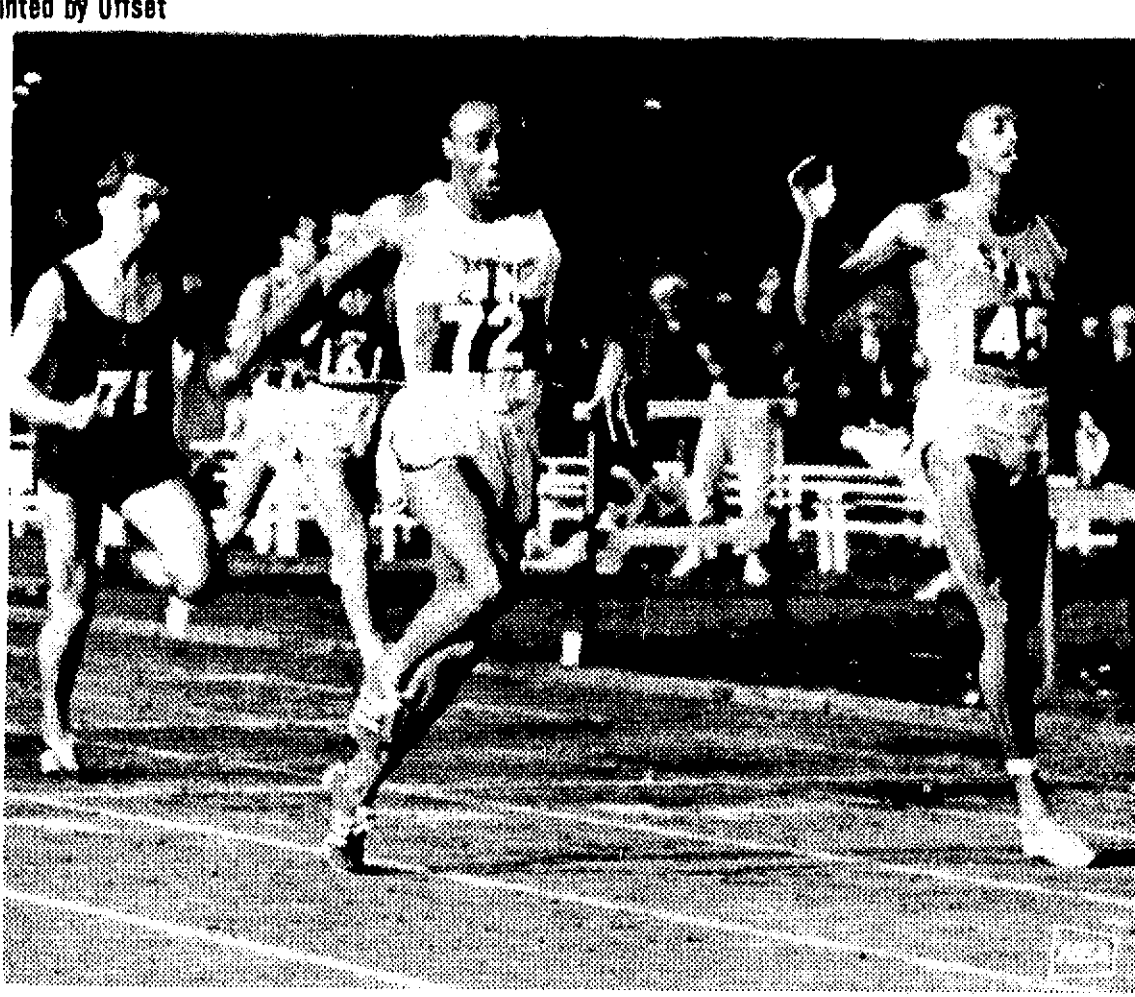

Aaron Would Narrow the Strike Zone

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Hank Aaron says they ought to narrow the strike zone. Narrowing the strike zone could be akin to issuing a license for the next 400 hitter. Aaron, however, says the pitchers have all the best of it as things now stand.

Mets Find Women in Clubhouse

NEW YORK (AP)—Moments after the New York Mets had defeated Cincinnati Tuesday night, they trooped happily back into the clubhouse to find... women!

It turned out that Mrs. Joan Payson, the Mets' owner, had politely inquired if she and her party might be allowed, when the game was over, to visit the dressing room and chat with the players. Not surprisingly, the request was granted.

"She's a nice lady," said Gil Hodges, the Met manager. "She asked permission. She didn't have to. She wanted to come. She'd never been in the clubhouse and she wanted to see it."

So for a few moments, the Mets sat before their lockers, none of them undoing so much as a button or a shoelace, while the women and their escorts walked around the carpeted floor chatting merrily away and enjoying themselves immensely.

The first ladies to visit a baseball dressing room after the game were Mrs. Joan Payson, Mrs. M. Donald Grant, Mrs. Michael Grant, Mrs. Timmy Grant and a woman whose name, alas, has been lost to posterity.

For the record, let it be noted that the first ladies to visit a baseball dressing room after the game were Mrs. Joan Payson, Mrs. M. Donald Grant, Mrs. Michael Grant, Mrs. Timmy Grant and a woman whose name, alas, has been lost to posterity.

Since then the only baseball played at the stadium has been the annual Firemen's vs. Police-men's game and two White Sox exhibitions. The exhibitions, including one this April with the Chicago Cubs, drew a total of 71,000 fans.

The Braves averaged better than a million in attendance each year during their Milwaukee stay, which ended in bitter recriminations and a costly antitrust suit won by the National League.

Now there are recurring rumors that the White Sox would like to shift the franchise 90 miles north. Milwaukee also is considered a strong contender in the competition for one of two expansion franchises in the National League.

The White Sox insist they intend to remain in Chicago. Arthur W. Allyn, club president, said he is pushing efforts to build a sports complex in downtown Chicago.

Kirby Hurls One-Hitter for Travelers

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Clay Kirby hurled a one-hitter as the Arkansas Travelers nipped the San Antonio Missions 1-0 in a Texas League game Tuesday night.

Kirby fanned 10 and allowed just four base runners to enable the Travelers to climb one game above the .500 mark for the season.

The only hit off Kirby was a loop single in the third inning by Tom Simon, who was wiped out trying to steal second base. Gary Ross, a losing pitcher, struck out 13 Travelers and walked only one, but he was in double off and on all night.

Arkansas' Leron Lee advanced as far as third in the second inning and Mike Christino got to second in the fourth. John Slipin led off the seventh with a single to right, but was cut down at the plate trying to score on Lee's double to left.

Milwaukee May Get Back in Majors

By KEN HARTNETT

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Milwaukee takes a tentative step back into the big leagues tonight after two seasons as the city baseball but all forgot.

The last-place Chicago White Sox, starting as poorly at the box office as they have in the American League pennant race, meet the California Angels in the first of nine regular season games the White Sox plan to play in Milwaukee.

The advance sale has approached 20,000 tickets. That is almost double the largest crowd the White Sox have drawn so far this season in Chicago.

The game will be the first in Milwaukee to count in the major league standings since September 1965. The Braves ended a stay of 13 seasons at County Stadium that fall and headed for Atlanta.

Since then the only baseball played at the stadium has been the annual Firemen's vs. Police-men's game and two White Sox exhibitions. The exhibitions, including one this April with the Chicago Cubs, drew a total of 71,000 fans.

This Mantle Turned to Another Job

By MIKE DOAN
Associated Press Writer
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Roy Mantle, who snared fly balls for three years in the Yankee farm system, now deals cards in Howard Hughes' Desert Inn Hotel.

"It's a little harder than it looks," says Mickey Mantle's younger brother, who estimates he is making more than he would have in the minor leagues.

The average black jack dealer makes $27 a day plus tips. "This really is just another job," says Mantle. "A lot of people think it's crooked but it's not."

Roy and his twin brother, Ray, now 32, signed with New York but turned to other jobs while their famous brother was swatting homers.

"Ray became disgusted and quit baseball," said Mantle. "Now he works for Falstaff Beer in Dallas."

Roy began his baseball career in 1954 as an outfielder with McAlester Okla., in the Class D Sooner State League. He moved to Monroe, La., and to Quincy, Ill., in a Class B League in 1956.

"I got hurt and had my leg operated on that last winter. I never could play anymore," Mantle says.

He worked for a while in Oklahoma and Texas and moved to Las Vegas after his divorce in 1963.

The husky, easy-going Mantle usually deals for about eight hours starting at 2 p.m. in the main casino, but most people there don't know he is Mickey Mantle's brother.

He follows his 36-year-old brother's career closely and occasionally goes to an Angels-Yankee game in Anaheim, Calif., about 300 miles away.

Female Jockey Could Make Race History

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP)—Judy Johnson, the only woman ever licensed as a jockey and one of racing's first female trainers, will make Preakness history Saturday when she saddles Sir Beau in the $150,000-added classic.

Two women have trained Kentucky Derby starters—the last was Mary Keim with sixth-place finisher Mr. Pak in 1905—but Miss Johnson's Paddock Walk at Pimlico will be a first for the Preakness.

"This is a dream come true," Miss Johnson said. "It's something you never expect to come your way. I've been waiting 40 years."

Judy started as a trainer in 1935, and in 1944 she was licensed to ride in steeplechase events. More than a mere wartime replacement, she won eight races in Canada after two out-of-the-money mounts in Maryland.

"When I returned to Maryland in the fall of 1944," she said, "the stewards said I could have stalls for my horses but indicated they didn't want me to ride any more."

Miss Johnson then concentrated on training horses, for which she was licensed in 1935. One of her horses was Floating Isle, who was named Steeplechase Horse-of-the-Year in 1947.

Miss Johnson says there's a definite place in racing for women trainers. "Why not?" she said. "It's not that complicated. It's 95 per

Hunter Hit Freely But Wins Game

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Oakland pitcher Catfish Hunter and Cleveland Manager Alvin Dark were far from perfect Tuesday night. But, though neither was around at the finish, their respective ballgames had the perfect endings.

In his first appearance since his perfect game against Minnesota last week, Hunter was jolted for five runs in the first inning but staggered to victory as the A's outslugged the Twins 13-8.

Dark was thrown out by umpire Bill Valentine for protesting two called balls as the sizzling Indians beat the New York Yankees 4-2 for their fifth straight victory and 11th in the last 12 games.

Cleveland took over undisputed possession of second place in the American League as Baltimore bowed to league-leading Detroit 4-0. It was the Orioles' seventh straight setback following an eight-game winning streak.

In other action, Boston edged Washington 5-4 in 10 innings and Chicago nipped California 7-6 on Duane Josephson's seventh-inning homer.

In the National League, San Francisco beat Houston 2-1, Los Angeles tripped Chicago 1-0, Atlanta turned back Philadelphia 3-1 and New York stopped Cincinnati 3-2.

Hunter was lifted after allowing the Twins eight runs and the same number of hits, including four homers, in six innings. But he got credit for the victory as the A's overcame a 5-0 Minnesota lead.

Rod Carew belted Hunter's second pitch over the fence and Tony Oliva and Rich Rollins added two-run homers before the first inning was over.

The A's forged ahead with six runs in the fourth inning, highlighted by Bert Campaneris' two-run triple and Jim Pagliaro's two-run double.

Two errors by Yankee shortstop Gene Michael helped the Indians push across the tying and winning runs in the seventh inning. Dark was ejected an inning later when he challenged two calls by Valentine on relief pitcher Eddie Fisher.

Willie Horton drove in three runs with a pair of homers and Earl Wilson pitched a four-hitter as Detroit drubbed Baltimore. The Tigers have a two-game lead over Cleveland.

Boston trailed Washington 4-0 as Frank Howard socked two homers and Ron Hansen hit one. But Ken Harrelson hit a two-run homer in the sixth and the Red Sox tied it with two more in the seventh. They won it in the 10th on a bases-loaded throwing error by Washington catcher Paul Casanova.

The White Sox' triumph, which came after they blew a 6-3 lead, was their 11th in 17 games after a 10-game losing streak at the start of the season and pulled them to within 12 percentage points of the ninth-place Yankees.

Fulbright Rejects War Theory

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., rejected Tuesday night the argument that the United States is fighting international communism in Vietnam.

He also said there is a "consensus approaching unanimity" that Hanoi is not dominated by Peking.

Fulbright said that "the domino theory is a fallacy and that China is not actively engaged in a campaign for the conquest of Asia."

Fulbright said that until the announcement of the current peace talks in Paris, the Johnson administration wasn't actively seeking a nonmilitary solution to the war in Vietnam.

When the administration appeared to ask for alternative solutions from dissenters, he said, it was really asking for another means by which a military victory could be obtained.

"The administration is correct in its assertion that no meaningful alternative of this type has been presented by anyone," Fulbright said. "The reason for this, I strongly suspect, is that the victory the administration seeks in the military field is probably unattainable."

Speaking to the Arkansas Federation of Women's Clubs here, Fulbright said that only after the war has ended can the United States face the "real and relevant" problems that face the world.

He said the fears that had caused the escalation of the Vietnam war were not valid. He said these fears should be put in proper perspective so that the United States can tackle such problems as the world population explosion, the food shortage and poverty at home.

Sit-in Staged to Oust White Teachers

NEW YORK (AP) — Demonstrating parents and their supporters staged a sit-in today at a predominantly Negro junior high school in Brooklyn to prevent five white teachers from returning to their classrooms.

Schools Supt. Bernard E. Donovan, backed by Mayor John V. Lindsay, said he would ask police to escort the teachers past the demonstrators. "We are going to have protection for every teacher in the area," Donovan declared.

Tuesday morning about 200 policemen stood by but made no move to open the way past the protesters for the five teachers to go into J.H.S. 271. About 110 other teachers stayed out to show support for their colleagues.

Only about 300 to 400 of the 2,000 enrolled pupils were reported inside J.H.S. 271 which is part of an eight-school experimental unit set up by the Board of Education to test community control of neighborhood schools.

The unit's governing board "dismissed" 13 teachers and 6 administrators from six of the schools last Thursday to precipitate the crisis. The 19 were charged with attempted "sabotage" of the experiment.

Lindsay, declaring his support for the ousted teachers, said: "The community group in Brownsville has taken an action that is beyond the law. I will, of course, support the Board of Education and the superintendent of schools if they ask for police assistance."

Rhody McCoy, a Negro who heads the local governing board of the Ocean Hill-Brownsville School Demonstration District, declared: "The community is resolved that it will control its schools. Nothing else matters at this point."

The district is one of three set up by the Board of Education and financed by the Ford Foundation. Its eight schools have a combined enrollment of 9,000 pupils, mostly Negroes. The majority of their 500 teachers are white.

Pearl Harbor 'Goat' Is Dead at 86

GROTON, Conn. (AP) — Retired Rear Adm. Husband E. Kimmel—commander of the U.S. Pacific Fleet on Dec. 7, 1941 when Japanese bombers caught it anchored in Pearl Harbor—is dead at 86.

Japan knocked out 18 ships and killed 3,435 Americans in the attack and drew the U.S. into World War II.

Kimmel died Tuesday of an apparent heart attack at his home here.

He had used much of his time since 1941 answering charges that he was to blame for the ease with which the Japanese brought off America's worst naval defeat.

Kimmel, who at the time was second in the U.S. Navy only to the chief of naval operations, said in 1966 he had taken "a bum rap."

"My principal occupation—what's kept me alive—is to expose the entire Pearl Harbor affair," he said.

"They made me the scapegoat," he said, "they wanted to get the United States into the war."

"That was President Roosevelt and Gen. George Marshall and others in the Washington high command," Kimmel explained.

"FDR was the architect of the whole business. He gave orders—and I can't prove this categorically—that no word about Japanese fleet movements was to be sent to Pearl Harbor except by Marshall and then he told Marshall not to send anything."

Within 10 days after the disaster Kimmel was relieved of his command—which had included the combined U.S. and Pacific fleets.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed an inquiry board. Members of Congress called for Kimmel's court martial. The board—in the first of eight separate investigations into the affair—charged Kimmel and the Army commander at Pearl Harbor, Lt. Gen. Walter C. Short, with "dereliction of duty."

PSC Picketed by Group

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Six persons from Van Buren picketed in the rain at the Justice Building Monday, carrying signs to protest aimed at the state Public Service Commission.

The group identified themselves as subscribers of Arkansas State Telephone Co., which they said served about half the people in their area. They said the other half were served by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. and that toll charges were made when they called someone on the Bell system.

The dispute is the latest clash in a continuing battle over decentralization of the 1.1-million-pupil public school system—the largest in the nation.

If the city breaks up its school system into about 15 autonomous or semiautonomous districts it would qualify for an added $100 million in state school aid.

The Board of Education opposes rapid decentralization while Lindsay is attempting to get the state legislature to pass a strong decentralization measure.

When your partner opens in no-trump and you have a balanced hand, it is a matter of simple addition to determine whether to play at a part score, in game or in slam. Just add your points to your partner's maximum and minimum. If your total plus his maximum is less than 26, you let him rest at one. If your total plus his maximum is 26 and your total plus his maximum is less than 33, take him to game. Occasionally you will invite game by a bid of two no-trump or invite a slam without actually bidding it if you want to be in slam if he has a maximum opening.

Take a look at today's North hand. It is balanced with 10 high card points and includes a four-card spade suit. If North raises to three no-trump, South will play the hand there. There are 10 potential no-trump tricks in the North-South cards, but in order for South to make those tricks he will have to knock out the black aces. Meanwhile, if West opens a heart, the defense will collect six tricks of their own after getting in with a black ace.

On the other hand, four spades makes easily. South will have to lose one trick in each suit except diamonds, but the spade trumps will take care of all but one of the East-West hearts. North and South will get to game if they employ modern bidding methods. North's two-club call has nothing to do with the club suit at all but merely is a forcing bid known as the Stayman two-club.

It demands that North rebid two of a major suit if he has a major four-carder. Otherwise, North rebids two diamonds. With this North hand, the two-spade rebid allows him to jump to the spade game. If South had rebid two hearts or diamonds, North would have bid three no-trump.

The Stayman convention in some form or other is used by every expert today. You should learn it also. It can't hurt you and often helps.

What do you do now?
A—Your partner has forced to game. You should bid four clubs to tell him that you have interest in a heart slam. You can't be trying to get to a club slam since his two club bid asked for majors and did not show clubs.

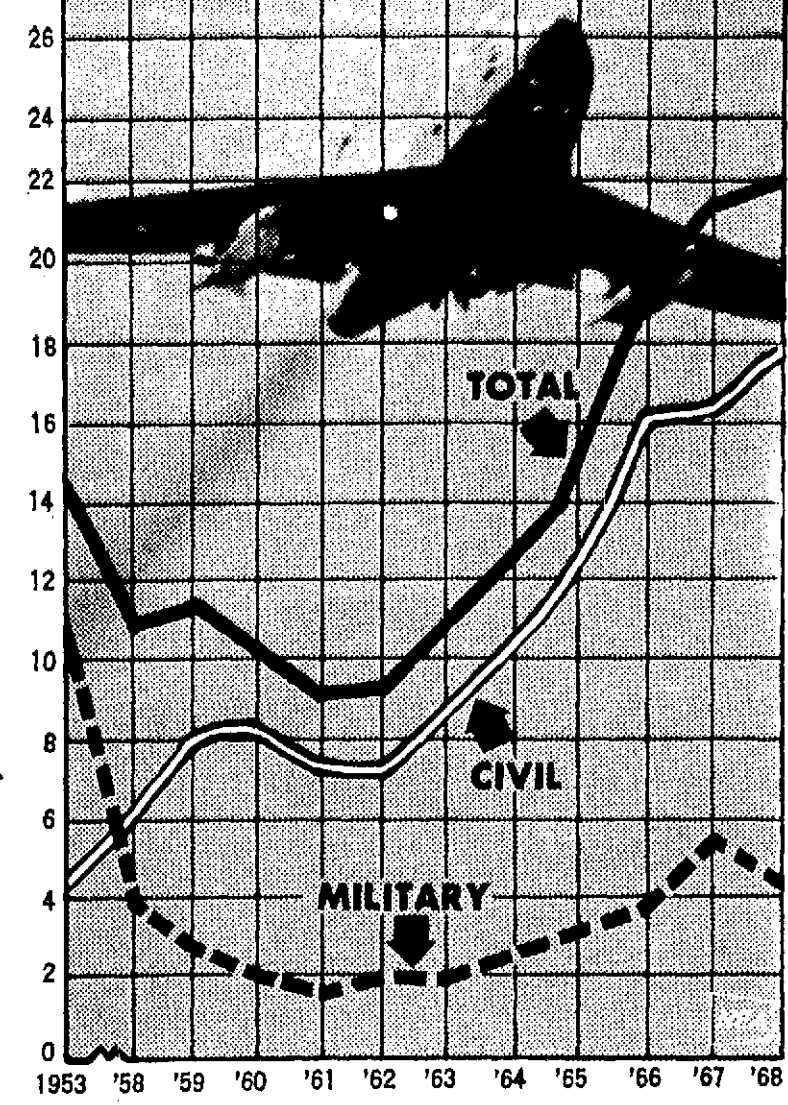

TODAY'S QUESTION
You bid four clubs and your partner bids four diamonds. What do you do now?

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Home Surgery for Elderly Dependent on Its Type

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Some time ago, I stated that surgical operations on the elderly should, when possible, be performed in the home. Since this has given rise to some misunderstanding, I wish to make it clear that such cases must be carefully selected. This procedure would be most unwise in the case of an exploratory operation in the abdomen if the surgeon was unsure of the diagnosis and what he would find. Nor could it be used for brain surgery, chest surgery or any other procedure that would be likely to require keeping the patient under an anesthetic for a prolonged period.

In the case of simpler procedures that could be done quickly, however, the operations can be performed at home and even in the patient's own bed. This has been recently recommended by a noted professor of surgery, not because it would make it easier for the surgeon but because uprooting an elderly patient from his home and sending him to a hospital is likely to cause a severe emotional upset.

Arkla Sets Up Fund to Train the Unskilled

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., announced here Tuesday that it is starting a $500,000 program to assist unskilled and unemployed persons become qualified for jobs.

Arkla President W. R. "Witt" Stephens said at the company's annual stockholders' meeting that the money for the new program would come out of the earnings of the company.

Stephens said this was a new "fourth obligation" of Arkla—helping to advance the abilities and skills of the lesser skilled and the unemployed persons of our area.

He said traditionally the company had acknowledged three basic obligations—to customers, stockholders and employees.

"In the past, when we had a vacancy, we took applications and then hired the best qualified person," Stephens said.

"Under this new program, we will take people who are willing to learn and we will help them to become qualified."

Stephens told the stockholders that Arkla always had emphasized job efficiency, and he said that "fulfilling this fourth obligation . . . may postpone some of our efficiency, but I am confident we can take our new program in stride."

In the last 10 years, he said, the company had created more than 1,500 new permanent jobs and was responsible for more than 2,000 temporary construction jobs.

Arkla is a diversified utility with manufacturing plants in four states. It provides natural gas service in Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

These young ladies are contestants for the title of Little Miss Hope. The event will be held at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night in the High School auditorium in connection with the Miss Hope Contest.

Favors Codes Imposed on Buildings

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock insurance executive Frank Whitbeck, a Democratic gubernatorial candidate, said here Tuesday night that he supported legislation to allow county governments to impose building codes and housing standards.

Whitbeck and state Rep. Marion Crank, another Democratic candidate for governor, spoke to the Home Builders Association of Greater Little Rock.

Whitbeck said the present law preventing counties from establishing housing codes "would allow unscrupulous entrepreneurs to set up a row of outhouses and rent them as human dwellings."

Whitbeck also said he favored legislation to "curb those individuals and institutions who have invaded the legitimate homebuilding industry for a quick and nasty profit."

He said he referred to the "highlanders, the hothouse salesmen of aluminum siding and the other unethical builders who operate on the fringe of your profession in the absence of effective regulation."

Crank told the group that 1967 was the first time in 10 years that Arkansas had fallen below the national average and had failed to match the average of any surrounding state.

"For the first time, we can say that our state economic development is bogged down," he said.

Crank said in 1967 the increase in per capita income in Arkansas was 3.7 per cent, while the national average was 6.7 per cent and the average of surrounding states was 6.6 per cent.

Crank said the most important thing needed to revive the state's industrial and economic growth was hard work.

Governors Scheduled to Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Five Republican governors, including Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, were scheduled to meet here today to discuss plans for the national GOP platform.

Education, economic resources and government spending are among the subjects to be discussed.

Eleven states were expected to be presented at the meeting, one of about 12 throughout the country to gather information in advance of the GOP national convention in Miami Beach.

Some Moving Into Shanties in Washington

By AUSTINSCOTT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — With their city of shanties nearly one-third finished, about 300 members of the Poor People's Campaign have moved into it in a festive mood.

As they spent their first chilly night in "Resurrection City, U.S.A.," hundreds of other destitute Americans were in caravans heading for Washington from the South, Midwest, and Northeast.

"It really looks good," said a volunteer carpenter as he surveyed neat rows of triangular plywood shelters near the Lincoln Memorial. A single light bulb gleamed through the clear plastic skylight in each shanty.

"What really tickles me is the spirit of the place," he said. "Everybody wants to help. I'm told 200 hammers were donated, but we didn't have enough."

"We gotta put up mailboxes and nameplates," joked The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy as he joined supporters in a huge canvas and plastic circus tent which will seat more than 200. It is used as a kitchen and for meetings.

So far, demonstration leaders have devoted their time mainly to internal housekeeping—feeding and caring for the 450 demonstrators on hand, —150 are in other temporary quarters—building the city and establishing rules. The leaders have set Monday for the tentative start of major demonstrations.

Abernathy, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was to take his campaign for jobs and income before Congress again today at a morning meeting with congressional leaders.

They include Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., and Rep. Charles C. Diggs Jr., D-Mich., both Negroes.

Port Authority Leases 28 Acres

CLARKSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Dr. Robert P. Smith, chairman of the Clarksville Port Authority, said Tuesday the authority has leased 28 acres of land on the Dardanelle Reservoir for construction of a river port.

The site, about five miles south of here, is one of 18 for port facilities planned on the Arkansas River navigation system between Fort Smith and Little Rock.

Work is scheduled to begin in three to four months to provide facilities for docking and tying barges.

The lease was signed for five years at $350 a year.

Kennedy Victorious in Nebraska

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy marched to victory in Nebraska's Democratic presidential primary and turned his campaign guns today toward Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey—with a suggestion that battered rival Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy join him.

The New York senator marshaled 53 per cent of the vote for a majority over McCarthy, President Johnson and write-ins for Humphrey.

McCarthy, with 31 per cent of the ballots, absorbed his second defeat by Kennedy in a week, but the Minnesota senator said he would campaign through the primaries ahead, and was not interested in an alliance with Kennedy.

Republican Richard M. Nixon rolled to 70 per cent of the vote, and said that was a victory of greater magnitude than he had anticipated. He said it proved Nebraska was Nixon country.

But California Gov. Ronald Reagan polled a surprising 22 per cent, said he was gratified—and would not refuse the GOP nomination if it were offered.

But Reagan said once again that he is not going to become a candidate, and will not campaign for the nomination. "I could not now foresee myself soliciting the job," he said. "It's a job that seeks the man."

Sixteen Republican nominating votes were at stake in separate balloting, and candidates who favor Nixon won all of them.

The Democratic delegate picture was more clouded, with candidates listed as uncommitted—or pledged—to Johnson—crowding the lengthy ballot.

But in the delegate contest, as well as the presidential preference poll, Kennedy led the way. Candidates who have expressed a preference for him led for 17 delegate spots. McCarthy-pledged candidates led for two. Nine uncommitted delegates who have expressed no preference filled out the list of leaders for Democratic dele-

Advises Everyone to Check Their Social Image Periodically

NEW YORK (AP) — Checked your image lately? You should. Your social image is as important to your success as oil is to the smooth functioning of your automobile. Both should be checked periodically.

First Break in Solid Front Against a $6 Billion Spending Cut

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The first break has developed in an otherwise solid administration front against $6 billion in spending cuts as the price for congressional approval of the 10 per cent tax surcharge.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler's endorsement of the tax-spending package worked out by Senate-House negotiators came before the administration was ready to take a firm position on the compromise—if it planned to take any stand at all.

Administration leaders are still working to get the size of the spending cut trimmed if that's still possible.

Fowler, in approving the compromise package, emphasized he spoke only for himself and not for the administration. But his opinion carries weight in the government.

The secretary is most concerned about what he considers an essential need for higher taxes.

Fowler's endorsement of the tax hike-spending cut package indicates he, at least, is willing to pay a $6 billion price if that's what it takes to get the surcharge.

But opponents of such a deep cut contend it would severely restrict many government programs. One of these is President George Meany of the AFL-CIO, who said Monday the 14-million-member labor federation will oppose it "with all our

Board Not Consulted on Cutback

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Welfare Board member Billy Calhoun of Dermott said Tuesday that the board wasn't consulted by Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock before curtailing the state-financed Remedial Eye Service Only program.

Blaylock announced Monday that two medical care programs which benefited more than 4,000 persons last year had been stopped for lack of funds.

The other program was the State Medical Care Only (SMCO) program, which was for medically indigent persons not on any welfare program.

Calhoun said that neither he nor the board had been given the opportunity to review the cutback.

"This is a policy forming board but we weren't consulted," he said.

Calhoun said he learned of the curtailment through a newspaper article. He said he asked Blaylock for information and that he also inquired about a memorandum issued in June 1967 in which the Welfare Department raised the fees it paid all doctors for services to welfare clients. Calhoun said this accelerated the spending.

strength." Any cut above $2.5 billion, Meany contends, "is going to hurt the poor people and hurt our programs on education and housing."

Johnson, while making clear he is reluctant to accept any significant budget slash, has said he would accept a $4 billion cut in order to get the tax bill.

The Senate-House conference committee which reached the compromise last week approved virtually intact the administration's plan for the 10 per cent surcharge as it was outlined last January.

Even the effective dates would remain the same—April 1 for individuals and last Jan. 1 for corporations.

There's still some doubt whether the tax plan will win final congressional approval but the battling in administration circles is that it will.

And the inside battling appears to lean toward President Johnson signing it, even if it also requires $6 billion in spending cuts.

Charged With Counterfeiting

John E. Gabhart, 53, was arrested Monday at Forrest City and bond was set at $5,000.

Police said a search of Gabhart's car revealed 10 counterfeit bills.

Camp Hit But Enemy Driven Off

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Enemy troops hit a second U.S. Special Forces camp this week but were driven off after destroying the communications bunker and some buildings and killing 19 Americans, the U.S. Command reported today.

U.S. helicopter gunships helped repulse the Viet Cong force which broke through a section of the perimeter in a three-hour fight Monday night for the Nui Ba Den Green Beret camp 55 miles northwest of Saigon.

The U.S. Command said at least 25 Viet Cong were killed. In addition to the 19 Americans killed, it said 24 were wounded.

The camp, atop a 3,000-foot mountain 20 miles from the Cambodian border, is a main American radio station and an important observation post on enemy infiltration routes. It also has secret electronic equipment to guide allied aircraft over the Mekong Delta and to track movements of foreign planes.

Most Special Forces camps are garrisoned by 10 to 12 U.S. advisers and 300 to 400 South Vietnamese or mountain tribesmen known as Montagnards.

The presence of an American force larger than usual at Nui Ba Den apparently was due to the special electronic and communication equipment.

However, the U.S. Command said the camp is much smaller than the Kham Duc Special Forces camp, near the Laotian border and about 300 miles to the north, which U.S. and South Vietnamese forces abandoned Sunday under attack by an estimated 5,000 North Vietnamese troops.

Government sources reported today that at least 185 South Vietnamese troops and members of their families were killed during the North Vietnamese seizure of the Kham Duc Special Forces camp.

Twenty-five Americans were reported killed and 125 wounded in the evacuation of the camp and in a rearguard action while 1,700 defenders and members of their families were lifted out on Sunday.

Local Woman Found Guilty by U.S. Jury

TEXARKANA — An Arkansas Federal Jury Monday found Mrs. Ada Faye Burns, 66, guilty of possession of untaxed whiskey after hearing liquor agents testify they had found 403½ gallons of untaxed liquor on or near her property.

Mrs. Burns, who lives on Highway 29, nine miles south of Hope, had taken the stand in her own defense testifying that she had no knowledge of the liquor being on her property and that because of her age and health was incapable of handling large jugs.

Federal liquor agents Robert L. Beckham and E. C. Bichof testified that prior to arresting Mrs. Burns on July 6, 1967, they had observed vehicles driving on a circular drive around to the back door of Mrs. Burns house. They said that through binoculars they could see persons going to the back door and exchanging money for bottles.

The officers testified that after obtaining a search warrant they found 33½ gallons of untaxed liquor in a locked car parked beside Mrs. Burns' garage. The car was described by officers as being inoperative with flat tires, some of its parts missing and bearing a license tag two years old.

The agents said they found 40 more gallons of untaxed liquor on her land in a wooded area and 350 gallons on property adjacent to her three acres.

State Funds Re-invested

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Board of Finance reinvested $4,320,000 of state fund balances Tuesday by buying that much in Series C, U.S. Treasury notes.

The balances were invested in 4½ per cent notes that were to mature today. The new notes will bear 6 per cent interest and will mature Aug. 15, 1969.

The board said failure to reinvest the funds immediately could have resulted in the state losing $700 per day in interest.
